3. Important Sentence Patterns

Pattern A: Saying what you want

Nanage + item + beku = I want / need something.

Examples:

- Nanage haalu beku. — I want milk.
- Nanage idli beku. — I want idli.
- Nanage hannu beku. — I want fruit.

Pattern B: Saying what you don't want

Nanage + item + beda = I don't want something.

Examples:

- Nanage kaafi beda. — I don't want coffee.
- Nanage sakkare beda. — I don't want sugar.
- Nanage khaara beda. — I don't want spicy food.

Pattern C: Asking for a little

Swalpa + item + kodi = Please give me some...

Examples:

- Swalpa neeru kodi. — Please give me some water.
- Swalpa haalu kodi. — Please give me some milk.

4. Mini Conversation: At the Breakfast Table 🍽️

Person A: Neevu oota maadiddira?
Have you eaten?

Person B: Illa, innu oota maadilla.
No, I haven't eaten yet.

Person A: Enu tinnuttira?
What will you eat?

Person B: Nanage dose beku.
I want dosa.

Person A: Kaafi beka?
Would you like coffee?

Person B: Howdu, swalpa kaafi kodi.
Yes, please give me some coffee.

Person A: Sari!
Okay!

5. Speaking Practice with Family 👨‍👩‍👧
